

A long drive to Lake Myvatn

One of the places I have really been looking forward to visiting is the Lake Myvatn area. I'm there for two days for my birthday and the highlights include hot springs and Europe's most powerful waterfall: Dettifoss. I haven't seen the northern lights yet due to cloud cover but, fingers crossed, the weather looks clear for the next few days.

From there another really long driving day to the northwest region, then to the Snaefellsnes region, diving at Silfra, overnight in Reykjavik, then I leave.

I feel like I just got to Iceland. There is still so much to see and places to explore. I'm going to consider this a scouting trip for my next visit!
