

First leg of my flight is good so far....

I'm unconvinced that SwissAir is any good after the flight in from Montreal (smallest seats ever with annoying passenger behind me) but the flight from Rome to Zurich was great, really good service an great legroom on the A320.

I requested a seat upgrade and got one. Fingers crossed.

If all goes well I will happily send another email to SwissAir.

Here are a few from the trip.

Sorry about the ordering but the last one, that's Pisa in the distance ☐☐

@Lindy - Flying over the alps was fantastic, just like you said!
