Fraser Cafe

A big happy birthday to my friend Matthew! We celebrated with friends at the Fraser Café on Beechwood. The menu was fantastic! I am really happy with the choices of good restaurants here! Heading to Absinthe with RP tomorrow night! I'm spoiling myself with some great food! Much better than pub fare!

Here are some iPhone photos of the pear salad, the steak on special, and a chocolate tart. The food was fantastic! I was really happy with my meal and we had a great time talking about traveling and our favorite foods!

And while I had too much to drink, I did get up late to do laundry. I skipped yoga, however, and plan on snoozing most of this rainy day away!
