

Iconic Photos : A better photo blog than mine :)

I have been collecting various blog links for a while and decided to share my favorites. This one, Iconic Photos, uses historical images and a brief essay for each. Great stuff!

Here is one that I really liked on the Paris Peace Conference.

And, if you want more background, please read one of the best historical books on the subject: Margaret MacMillan's Paris 1919: Six Months That Changed the World.
