

Success with Zucchini cake!

So while there are no clean dishes left in my apartment, dinner with my friend RP was awesome! Here are some crappy drunken iPhone pictures that I took, I wanted to document the entire evening but it was too much work! I'm not sure if the steak or the fennel or the dessert was my favorite but I do know that a good time was had by all!

So this is the appetizers, note the goat cheese that was amazing!
